

Dear CPO Selectee Spouse,

On behalf of Naval Services FamilyLine, I would like to offer my congratulations on the selection of your spouse to Chief Petty Officer. As a Navy spouse, I know the amount of hard work, dedication and sacrifice it has taken to reach this level.

Naval Services FamilyLine, a volunteer-based, non-profit, was established in 1965 when a few Navy wives recognized the value of an engaged and informed Navy family. Beginning with Sea Legs: A Handbook for Navy Life and Service, we have made it our mission to empower Navy families to meet the challenges of a military lifestyle with information, resources, and mentoring.

We want to help you and the members of your spouses' command have positive experiences that you all will treasure for a lifetime. Please find a copy of the newly updated Guidelines for the Spouses of Chief Petty Officers enclosed. All of our publications in our "Guideline Series" are provided free-of-charge to Navy commands and spouses. The publications can also be found on our website at www.nsfamilyline.org.

Visit our website at www.nsfamilyline.org to learn more about our programs, publications, and volunteer opportunities. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us at 202-433-2333 or by email at info@nsfamilyline.org.

The spouse volunteers at Naval Services FamilyLine look forward to working with you in the future.

Thank you,

Elka Giordano
